Welcome to the East of Scotland Football League

The East of Scotland Football League has voted unanimously to introduce 26 new clubs this season - including an exodus of 25 from the junior ranks. Among the clubs deciding to leave junior football are East Super league champions Bonnyrigg Rose Athletic, Linlithgow Rose, Penicuik Athletic and Bo'ness United. The East of Scotland junior membership will drop from 60 clubs to just 36.

East of Scotland Football League president John Greenhorn described it as a "momentous" time for the region. Moving into what is effectively the sixth tier of senior football gives the new members a potential pathway into the Scottish Professional Football League via the pyramid system. The new East of Scotland League will be organised into three "conference-style" divisions with the winners of each playing off to become overall champions.

Conference A: Hawick Royal Albert, Leith Athletic, Peebles Rovers, Coldstream, Tweedmouth, Penicuik Athletic, Hill of Beath Hawthorn, Newtongrange Star, Musselburgh Athletic, Dunbar United, Arniston Rangers, Oakley United, Easthouses Lily

Conference B: Lothian Thistle Hutchison Vale, Tynecastle, Burntisland Shipyard, Eyemouth United, Bonnyrigg Rose, Dundonald Bluebell, Bo'ness United, Sauchie, Haddington Athletic, Tranent, Dalkeith, Crossgates Primrose, Dunipace.

Conference C: Preston Athletic, Heriot-Watt University, Stirling University, Ormiston, Linlithgow Rose, Broxburn Athletic, Camelon, Jeanfield Swifts, Blackburn United, St Andrews United, Edinburgh United, Craigroyston, Inverkeithing.
